*THE ROAD is long
the way is steep,
The path sometimes
is hard to keep;
There's sun and rain
upon the way
We travel o'er from day to day.*

*SOMETIMES we lose
the vision bright,
That leads us on though
dark the night;
But Life's ahead what
e'er befall,
And come what may,
we're comrades all!*

*We're comrades all
in joy and pain, We're comrades in the sun and rain,
We're comrades in the
work we do,
Day by day the jour ney through.*

*AND though the night
shall dark descend,
We still shall be good
comrades, friend;
For faith and hope and
love are strong,
And friends are friends
and memory long.*

*NOR LIFE, nor Death
completes the whole, Nor holds in pawn the
human soul;
So, here's my hand
beyond recall,
Yours "for keeps"—
we're comrades all!*
